Shoreham Emergency Plan

All major emergencies are dealt with by the emergency services. However, there may be times such as power cuts, snow and ice, flooding or storms where the emergency services are not required. These conditions can make life challenging for more vulnerable people such as the elderly, infirm, disabled, sick or even someone who maybe heavily pregnant or with young children.

If you'd like to be on the list either permanently or temporarily, or you know someone who would, then please contact Amanda Barlow, the Parish Clerk on 0791 2611048 or via email at clerk@shorehamparishcouncil.gov.uk. If you are giving the details of another person please ensure you have their permission and agreement.

Mpwapwa matters Water. Water filters to be precise. You may remember back in 2018, when Gillian Lovatt-Young and I returned from Mpwapwa, Tanzania, how enthusiastic we both were at the positive impact a £15 water filter could have. Having met our two linked schools and St Joseph's parish in Chunyu, we witnessed the difference that a water filter could make to health and the consequent impact this had on all aspects of people's lives.

There is now another exciting thing happening in Mpwapwa, again to do with water. This time a Drip Irrigation scheme. It works like this ... for the cost of £350, a farmer is provided with all the materials (and training) to set up a drip irrigation scheme. The water usually comes from a large tank, which is filled from the nearest bore hole. This can be hard physical work if the hole is some distance away. The cost of the equipment is given as a loan, with the expectation that it will be paid back in a year's time ... this is then used to provide the equipment for another farmer ... and so the scheme spreads.

Before the scheme was introduced, the harvest was dependent on getting rain at the right time, in the right quantity. If that all went your way, there would usually be one harvest a year. With the drip irrigation scheme, farmers are often getting up to 3 harvests a year ... and most farmers are able to pay back the £350 within 3 or 4 months of starting. It is wonderful to see how a relatively small amount of money can have such a transformative impact.

Talking of money ... you may remember back in 2021 (in the midst of Covid) when I turned 60, I decided to walk '60 Miles a Month for Mpwapwa' until I reached 61. Thanks to your generosity that raised over £4000. All of these funds have now been sent to Mpwapwa for a variety of projects/organisations, including:

~ Chunyu Primary School, who need more desks (currently 4 pupils to each desk).

~ Chunyu Secondary School used some money to help students after a fire in a dorm destroyed all their books and uniform. They now also have the possibility of setting up their own drip irrigation scheme.

~ St Joseph's parish, who were making bricks and building a bigger church, when we visited in 2018. They have now finished the roof and also have the opportunity to set up a drip irrigation scheme to provide ongoing funds for the church.

~ St Luke's Health Centre, who do amazing work with few resources.

~ Queen Esther Secondary School have been given some money towards a bore hole.

Our friends in Mpwapwa, with whom we keep in regular touch by WhatsApp, always inspire me with their sense of gratitude, resilience and hope. We are excited to be hosting Bishop Luzineth from Mpwapwa Diocese, for the first weekend in November ... see November Nibbles poster for invite ... open to all on 1st November.

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

Our AGM this year is on Friday 8th November at 2.00pm in the Village Hall. After the meeting, which never lasts long, we have Mr Bob Ogle as our speaker talking about The Story of The Doodlebug. Afterwards there will be refreshments. This is open to all - you don't have to be a member of The RBL to attend. Like most societies in the village, we are always looking for new Committee members. If you feel this is something you would like to do, please get in touch before the AGM and you will be nominated. We are a very friendly bunch, we meet in each other's houses on the 1st Wednesday of every month except August. You do, however, have to be a member of the RBL.

The Remembrance Service this year is on Sunday 10th November starting at 10.00am in The Church. After the service we will march down to The War Memorial for the Wreath Laying and reading of the names. The service finishes with a two minute silence. We try our very best to have the two minute silence at 11.00, so we like to be at the bridge/War Memorial by 10.50. Please come and join us in Church or at The War Memorial or both to help us Remember Shoreham's fallen. Lorna Robinson RBL

COMMUNITY COFFEE MORNING

We had a very successful coffee morning in October when over £321 was raised for Folly Wildlife Rescue, and we would like to thank everyone who came along and donated so generously to try to keep Folly going at this difficult time for them.

The next Community Coffee Morning will be held on Thursday 14 November, in the Village Hall from 10am to 12 noon as usual. We will be asking for donations, rather than charging for coffee/tea and cake, as this month all proceeds will be donated to Hospice in the Weald. There will also be a raffle and a bric-a-brac table to peruse, also in aid of the Hospice. We hope lots of you will come along to enjoy the friendly atmosphere and help raise funds for this worthy cause.

NEWS FROM SHOREHAM VILLAGE SCHOOL, OCTOBER 2024

We have had a few lovely pupil-led events over the past few weeks with Amelia representing the school and reading her Harvest piece beautifully at the church service - well done, Amelia! Poppy was a huge help in sorting out all of the donations that were brought in by pupils and we had a lovely email from the 'Loaves and Fishes' food bank, thanking pupils, parents and staff for their donations. Our Year 6 pupils did a wonderful job of hosting afternoon tea for our 'Over 60s' friends, completing crosswords, chatting and serving tea and coffee; they also sang 'Harvest Tango' to them as a treat. One of our guests put a lovely thank you message on the village Facebook page, "...It was so lovely...Yr6 served us tea and sat and chatted to us...then gave those of us who wanted, a tour of the school.....We are so lucky that we still have such a thriving village school. The children today were lovely...so polite and interesting to talk to." In addition, to celebrate the end of Kindness Week, our Anti-Bullying Ambassadors gave every child a Kindness Cookie along with a lovely message of friendship that they added to each bag. We are very proud of all our pupils who are active citizens for our local community.

At the end of last week, the children learned about the Darent Valley Community Rail Partnership, who are working to improve the station facilities on the train line that runs through the village. I have accepted the invitation for our pupils to design the mural that is to be painted on the platform wall and the artist, Ola, joined by Shoreham Society's John Saynor, visited us to tell us how we could provide her with the best possible material for the mural. Together, the children chose the colour palette and then worked on creating their own elements for the mural. It will be amazing to see the finished piece of art.

We do hope that our friends in Shoreham Village feel that they are welcome to be part of the Friends of Shoreham School (FOSS), which is the fundraising group whose aim is to raise monies to benefit the pupils at the school. Please do join us for our fundraising events which will be shared in the Gazette.

If you would like to support the school further, we are always happy to hear from people who would be interested in volunteering to work with the pupils to hear readers or run a club, or for those who could bring skills to the Governing Body that will help to lead the school strategically to further improve. If you would like to find out more about how you can help your village school in this way, please contact me via the school office; all volunteers are subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service Check and go through an induction and training programme.

We still have some limited spaces for pupils available in some year groups, so if you know anyone who is looking for a small friendly school with high standards and lots of lovely outdoor space, please ask them to call us to arrange a tour. Phone: 01959 522228 or email: office@shoreham.kent.sch.uk

TEMENOS CHAMBER CHOIR

I heard a voice from Heaven.

Saturday 23 November, 7.30pm in St John's Church, Hildenborough. Celebrating the 100th anniversary of Sir Charles Villiers Stanford's death and the 150th anniversary of the birth of his pupil Gustav Holst, we offer a feast of music by two giants of the English choral tradition.

Temenos director Patrick Craig has chosen Stanford's glorious double-choir Latin Magnificat, followed by I heard a voice from Heaven and God and the Universe; his Three English motets, which include the exquisite Eternal Father; and the much-loved Three Latin motets - Beati quorum via, Justorum animae and Coelos ascendit.

From Holst's extensive repertoire we will perform The Evening-Watch, Sing me the men, Nunc dimittis and the glorious 8-part Ave Maria. Patrick will also sing Stanford's beautiful To the Soul and Holst The heart worships; a treat, as those of you who came to Patrick's recital for the Shoreham Festival of Music will know.

HARVEST 2024 REPORT

I imagine that everyone can recall how wet England’s weather was between September 2023 and late spring this year. Fieldwork and seed sowing was widely delayed, in some localities soils remained sodden or flooded and at worst were left uncropped. In the south east summer finally made an appearance in mid-July, facilitating a largely trouble-free cereal harvest, greatly welcomed by farmers.

Grass suffers in drought but thrives in a wet year! Therefore, silage and hay cuts were large, filling the barns with forage for feeding during the approaching winter. In contrast lavender dislikes wet weather, so oil yields were the lowest for several years, although visitor interest in our purple landscape was undiminished.

Unseasonably low daytime temperatures last spring provided challenges to horticultural growers, delaying the ripening of soft fruit and the maturing of vegetables. Often lean periods were followed by unhelpful, albeit temporary, gluts of produce.

Apples & pears have bounced back from last year's poor crop. Some trees were so heavy with fruit that a few boughs snapped under the weight. Of course, the October grape harvest – now a significant event in Kent – is well underway, but as I write it is too early to call if this year will produce vintage wines, both in quantity and quality.

Although lower than last year, cereal yields were better than many had predicted. Similarly, 'break' crops of oilseeds, linseed and beans were all down in yield, but by less than expected, helped by maturing ripe for harvest during dry weather.

In times past Shoreham folk could look to a cornfield and see a line of men steadily scything, followed by women and children binding corn into sheaves. Stored in barns or thatched stacks, the threshing of the grain, separating it from the straw and chaff, took place through the winter. Combine harvesters have revolutionised this manual work by 'combining' the cutting, threshing and cleaning into a single mechanised operation.

The word 'harvest' comes from the Old English word hærfest meaning 'autumn' - the season for gathering food off the land. For centuries past, a prosperous harvest would ensure that each local community would be fed throughout the impending winter. It's therefore no surprise that harvest home was always greeted as a time for much celebration and thanksgiving.

Dramatically fewer people are involved in gathering in the arable harvest today, so celebrations in the field are more muted now. We enjoy maintaining some traditions at Castle Farm so, on the evening of 21st August, we hand-cut a last sheaf of oats from in front of the approaching combine and shouted the traditional cry of "The Neck".

In years past these final ears of corn were considered of special reverence, so would be crafted into a corn doll and kept above the farmhouse hearth. In order to guarantee the success of the next harvest, it would be ploughed back into the land the following January on Plough Monday.

William Alexander 9th October 2024

Presentation Darent Valley Archaeology 28 Nov

Please come to our public meeting in the Village Hall on Thursday 28 November at 7.30pm. Quite a lot of digging has been done in the Darent Valley over the last few years, thanks to the Darent Valley Landscape Partnership. This work has been led by Anne Sassin of the Kent Downs National Landscape Team and she will speak about archaeology at Lullingstone. There have been some fascinating discoveries. This will be followed by the Shoreham Society Annual General Meeting (AGM), but we promise this part will be kept short! You'll have the opportunity to raise any issues of concern in the village.

Refreshments and the famous cheesy biscuits will be available! William Alexander of Castle Farm will conclude the evening with a report of how things have been for agriculture in the past year.

Shoreham Shining Again!

Did you see our incredible haul outside the Village Hall?

A massive thank you to the 24 volunteers, including two newcomers, who came to the Village Hall on Saturday 12th October to sign up for jobs to make Shoreham Shine.

Our achievements:

- LITTER PICKED the A225 lay-by and right of the station, Station Road, the Graveyard, Filston Lane, High Street to the triangle, Blind Alley, left of the triangle, Cockerhurst Lane
- CUT BACK VEGETATION from around the Village Hall
- SWEPT the Church path, the Village Hall steps and the gutters in-front of the Village Hall and the Walnut Tree cottages
- WEEDED the paths around the Village Hall, and the pavement in-front of the Village Hall and the Walnut Tree cottages
- CLEANED and WASHED the telephone box
- REMOVED GUARDS from trees in the woods
- SOCIALISED as we worked and later whilst chatting over a cuppa and some tasty treats.

Our more interesting hauls included: two car tyres, four hub caps, a huge spring, and a pair of red high heeled shoes!

A big thank you to the volunteers who hedge cut, tidy and tend flowers throughout the year around the Village Hall. An especially big thank you also to the people who regularly litter pick in the village throughout the year. It is because of you that more outlying lanes can be litter picked during Shoreham Shine. See you in March!

Please remember to keep the pavements in front of your house clear of plants to enable ease of access for all pedestrians.

Train News

A couple of months ago, we reported that pay-as-you-go contactless train tickets were to be introduced on the lines through Shoreham and Sevenoaks in September. This didn't happen – because of the hacking of Transport for London's systems – as the contactless system is operated by TfL. No new date has been announced.

In the meantime, do please use our excellent local train services – Shoreham to London Bridge in 38 minutes (change at Swanley), for example. And don't forget that you can always travel in the 'first class' sections of our local trains at no extra charge.

Santa's Coming

Santa will be visiting Shoreham as usual this year on Christmas Eve – watch this space!

Chris Euman and John Saynor, Joint Chair (shorehamsociety@gmail.com)

HISTORY NOTES: SHOREHAM POVERTY IN THE 1930S

These notes were written by the late Joy Saynor about her childhood before the war and give a flavour of people's struggles in the Great Depression. They have recently been uncovered in the archives of the Shoreham Historical Society.

Young men, unemployed and looking for work, were a common sight in Shoreham in the late 1930s. Often they slept rough on the seats on the Rec. Many times I was sent as a child – and went very unwillingly – to ask them into our cottage for tea and sometimes breakfast. One of these men came back during the war, in uniform. I think he was stationed nearby and he brought my mother a little present for helping him a few years before.

Perhaps rather more tramps came through Shoreham than other villages because of “Miss Berkeley’s” (as it was known in the village) at Little Timberden. Miss Berkeley and a friend, Miss Cobbold, had been sent to the area as land girls in the 1914-18 war. Afterwards, she and her father came to Little Timberden. Her father had been a physician in the East End for many years, as his tombstone in the churchyard testifies.

Miss Berkeley was a devout Roman Catholic and established a refuge for tramps in the outbuildings of her home. One barn became a sleeping area, another a chapel. Tramps could stay only one night and would be given breakfast, two-and-sixpence and a pair of mended boots on their departure. Miss Cobbold comes into the story again because it seems that she is why the restored wooden carving of Christ on the cross which formed a little sanctuary further along the lane was sent, after it was vandalised, to the Catholic convent at Quidenham in Norfolk.

I am reminded of the miner’s daughter (who may have been called Mary) who came to be a housemaid to the Brownes at Orchard House. She often had tea with us. My mother discovered that she was very lonely: she had never left home before and was very young. Her father had been laid off in the South Wales mines and it was necessary for her to come to the (relatively) prosperous south-east to earn money to send home to her family. She did not return to Wales but married a man from the village, and lived for many years in Sevenoaks and then, I think, in the Bexley area.

In the late 1930s, only the wealthiest families – the Mildmays, Gregorys, Dunsanys and Cohens – tended to have cars. I don’t think the vicar, Mr Payne, had one. The cheap day return ticket to London was two-and-nine, and at one time there were early tickets for workmen which were cheaper still. Few people were comfortably off. Villagers were always in need of outworn clothes that could be given to them – and also toys for the children. Being, I suppose, a rather ungenerous child, I hated having cherished toys given away, and certainly didn’t appreciate being told that the village children needed them more than I did!

THE ARTS SOCIETY SEVENOAKS

Lectures on all genres of art take place monthly at Walthamstow Hall, Holly Bush Lane in Sevenoaks. Wine is served from 7.30pm before each lecture which starts at 8pm, on the second Thursday of the month. It is extremely good value at £50 for the programme of lectures. This is a wonderful way of learning more about art from experts who deliver extremely high quality, illustrated lectures.

Do contact secretary.sevenoaksartsoc@gmail.com for more information. Guests are welcome to come along for a taster session, to get an idea of The Arts Society and if it is for them! Study Days and outings are organised to look at certain periods of art in more depth. Art is for everyone and we hope you may feel inspired to come along.

SHOREHAM & DISTRICT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

For our October meeting we welcomed Stuart Robinson who gave a grim but entertaining talk on crime in London in the 18th and 19th centuries. He took us through the troubled rise of effective policing, the many forms of punishment for wrongdoers, and stories of the capital's most notorious villains - from Dick Turpin and Jonathan Wild to Jenny Diver and the Whitechapel Murderer.

At our November meeting Alan Williams will talk about Doodlebugs over the Darent Valley. For more news reports & photos look at the Historical Society website <https://shorehamhistory.weebly.com/>
